Bruce,

Thanks. Your fee is quite modest. We would charge admission to pay rent on the theater and pay the band. My idea is some live music from Bill's earlier work, the movie, an audio interview with Bill, and some more music from later in Bill's life. We tentatively are looking at November 9. I have a lot of local media connections, so I expect there to be print, radio, TV, and social media interest. I will keep you posted. Thanks.

Larry

Hi Lawrence,

Of course i would be delighted to screen the Bill Evans Film. Usually if there is paid attendance, we would be asking a $100.00 fee for showing the film. If its a free event, we can waive that. I would also be glad to provide any materials, and do any kind of radio interview etc, that would help promote the show. go to Billvanstimerremembered.com, our website wwhere you can get a lot more info on the film. Thanks agains for reaching out, and i hopw we can show the film in you mine/st paul area.....get bak to me if you have any questions, Best Bruce

Mr. Spiegel

I am interested in hosting Bill Evans Time Remembered in the Minneapolis and St. Paul Metropolitan Area of Minnesota. I saw Bill play a few times when I was a kid, and he was my great piano influence.

Recently I have been performing his arrangements from his time with Tony Bennett and Miles Davis to large audiences.

Bill's wife Nenette and I are friends. She gave me a manuscript to his early composition "It's Love, It's Christmas" that we perform in December. Last year she introduced me to the staff of the Bill Evans Piano Academy in Paris, where I later performed.

I also am on the board of the Leigh Kamman Legacy Project that is restoring radio interviews of Bill and other jazz greats.

I have talked to the Leigh Kamman Legacy Project, KBEM 88.5 jazz radio <http://www.jazz88.fm/> (a nonprofit jazz radio station) and the Heights Theater <http://www.heightstheater.com/> (a classic theater that has programmed jazz films) about an event in early November that would include live music, the movie, and recorded interviews with Bill.

I have reviewed the host instructions and believe we can host an event that will suit the subject. Let me know what you think. Thank you for your consideration.
